CARNEGIE-STOUT PUBLIC LIBRARY MATERIALS SELECTION POLICY

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Materials Selection Policy is to serve as a guide for librarians and a source of information for the public about how library materials are selected.

II. DEFINITIONS

The term “library materials” as used in this policy includes print, non-print, and electronic resources. “Selection” refers to the decision to add or keep an item in the collection.

III. THE LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS

The library recognizes that some material is controversial; any given item may offend someone. However, material selection is not based on anticipated approval or disapproval but on the merits of the material in relation to the needs and interests of the community and to the balance of the library’s collection.

To label or sequester material because of its potential controversial nature is an act of censorship. The library does not restrict access to materials except for the express purpose of protecting material from mutilation or theft.

Children and young adults may use both the youth and the adult collections. Parents or guardians are responsible for the reading, viewing, and listening of library materials by their children.

The Library Board of Trustees adopts as local policy the provisions of the Library Bill of Rights, as adopted by the American Library Association:

LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS

The American Library Association affirms that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies should guide their services.

1. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.

2. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.
3. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.
4. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgments of free expression and free access to ideas.
5. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of national origin, age, background, or views.
6. Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

Adopted June 19, 1939. Amended October 14, 1944; June 18, 1948, February 2, 1961, June 27, 1967, and January 23, 1980; inclusion of "age" reaffirmed January 23, 1996, by the ALA Council.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY AND PROCEDURE FOR SELECTION OF LIBRARY MATERIALS

The Library Board of Trustees adopts the Materials Selection Policy, which serves as a guideline for building the library's collections of print, non-print and electronic materials.

The Library Director is responsible for material selection. The Director may delegate this responsibility to the appropriate staff.

All questions or concerns about this policy or how it is executed are to be directed to the Library Director. The Director may, if necessary, direct questions and concerns to the Library Board of Trustees for response and/or resolution.

Third party sources, including but not limited to professional reviewing sources, publisher's catalogs, online databases, and other media sources, may be relied upon in material selection.

As long as a requested material falls within the provisions of this policy, suggestions by library patrons for material acquisition will be considered.

V. PROCEDURE FOR HANDLING PATRON COMPLAINTS REGARDING MATERIALS

When a patron questions the inclusion of any title in the library's collection, the patron will be referred to the Adult or the Youth Services Manager. If requested, the patron will be furnished with a "Patron Request for Reconsideration" form to issue a formal complaint or objection (copy attached). The appropriate Service Manager will review and prepare a response to the complaint or objection, review the response with the Library Director, and notify the patron of the response within 14 days of the request.

If unsatisfied with the Service Manager's response, the patron may appeal to the Library Director within 30 days of the date on the response. The Library Director shall review the pertinent material and notify the patron about his/her decision within 30 days of receiving the appeal. The Director's decision may be appealed to the Library Board of Trustees within 30 days of his/her written decision. The appeal will be placed on the next appropriate Board of Trustee meeting agenda as a public meeting.

If the Board of Trustees, at its sole discretion, feels it necessary, it may appoint a Review Committee to review the patron complaint or objection. The committee may include professional librarians and specialists in the subject matter of the material. The Review Committee will provide a written opinion to the Board on whether the contested material is within the scope of the Board's Materials Selection Policy.

The Library Board of Trustees may also conduct a public hearing on the issue and shall make the decision about the disposition of the material in question at a public meeting of the Board.

VI. GENERAL SELECTION CRITERIA AND CONSIDERATIONS

Material selection is guided by the Library's Mission Statement. The mission of the Carnegie-Stout Public Library is to improve the quality of life by providing resources for individual enjoyment, enlightenment, and knowledge and which enhance the literacy of youth.

Due to space considerations, the library attempts to avoid the accumulation of duplicative material. However, the library may add multiple copies of a single title in print, non-print, and electronic formats to satisfy patron demand.

The library builds its collection to serve all segments of the community, including students. However, material selection will not be based on the curriculum needs of any educational institution, organization or group. Highly technical or scholarly material are generally not included in the collection.

The library collects materials in a variety of formats including print, audiovisual, and digital. Formats rendered obsolete due to the prevalence of a new format will not be added to the collection. The library will continue to expand new technologies as driven by demand from its community.

- SELECTION CRITERIA

The following is a non-exclusive list of factors the library considers in selecting materials:

1. Authority and competence of the author.
2. Accomplishment of its purpose.
3. Accuracy of presentation.
4. Relation to the existing collection.
5. Relevance to the needs and interests of patrons.
6. Timeliness of subject matter.
7. Balance of alternate viewpoints.
8. Objectivity or clear identification of a particular viewpoint.
9. Cost of materials.
10. Copyright date.
11. Availability.
12. Professional reviews.
13. Format.
14. Literary merit.
15. Purchase suggestion made by a library patron. Each request is reviewed for inclusion in the collection using the aforementioned selection criteria and is limited to three (3) per month. Suggestions for items not yet published will not be considered. Generally, if an item is more than three years old it will not be purchased. The library cannot guarantee that the requester will be first on the hold list for a purchase request.

Every attempt is made to acquire titles by local authors that are published by mainstream publishers. Titles that are self-published are not added to the regular collection unless there is a compelling reason to do so; i.e. valuable local content or high local interest. Print on demand titles that are self-published, even though available via mainstream distributors, will not be added unless they meet the library's collection criteria.

VII. GIFTS

The Library accepts gifts of materials from patrons if the material fits within the scope of the Materials Selection Policy. The library will not accept materials which are not outright gifts. The library reserves the right to dispose of gift materials (see Discarding Materials below) as its needs dictate. All materials approved for addition will be integrated into the existing library collection. The library cannot provide donors with an estimate of the gift's value for tax purposes.

VIII. DISCARDING MATERIALS

The library continually examines its collection to remove "materials which are out-of-date, in poor condition, or used infrequently. In determining what materials should be removed, items are reviewed using the guidelines outlined in CREW: A Weeding Manual for Modern Libraries. (<https://www.tsl.texas.gov/ld/pubs/crew/index.html>)

Removed items may be sold to the Friends of the Library for public sale, sold online, returned to the community for use, or transferred to a company that deals with the resale of books to raise funds. If an item is damaged, it may be discarded.

Discarded materials are not to be presented to individual persons, groups or organizations because of possible resultant impressions of favoritism.

IX. REVISION OF THE MATERIALS SELECTION POLICY

The Material Selection Policy is regularly reviewed by the Library Director. If a change is required, the Library Director will make a recommendation to the Library Board of Trustees for consideration and action.

X. CONCLUSION

The intention of this policy is to provide a guideline for meeting the varied needs and interests of Dubuque's community members who look to the library to meet their informational and recreational needs.
